

Lincoln Land Community College Hosts “WINTER LIGHTS” Quilts Exhibit and Intergenerational Workshops

In November, the Lincoln Land Community College Department of Community Learning and the Phillip and Mary Kathryn Trutter Museum are delighted to host a special showing of original fabric art quilts made by Anna Grossnickle Hines, a lifelong educator and quilter from California, along with accompanying panels presenting her original poems. She has written and illustrated more than 50 published children’s books, and we proudly present the beautiful and intricate works from her book, “Winter Lights.”

Winter Lights Exhibit: November 18-21, 2009

Wednesday, 11/18/09: 10:30 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Thursday, 11/19, and Friday, 11/20: 10:30 a.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Saturday, 11/21: 10:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Admission: $3 for adults; $2 for children.

For GROUP (12 or more) TOUR times, please contact Jennifer Lewis at 217-786-2432.

Three intergenerational workshops with LLCC College For Kids coordinator Jessica Ingold will also be held in conjunction with “WINTER LIGHTS” on Saturday, 11/21/09.
