Decision Making Process

1. Recognize and define the decision to be made.

2. Know what is important to you and what you want to accomplish.

3. Examine information you have and look for and use new information.

4. Assess the risks and cost involved in each alternative available.

5. Develop a plan or strategy for attaining what you want.

Decision Point